□ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).

(2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- X (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- X (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is a flight risk and is a danger to the community and/or other persons.

Findings Related to Detention:

- 1. The evidence against the defendant is substantial in that the acts alleged are recorded by telephone calls.
- 2. The defendant has 25 Failures to Appear in Court and 13 revocations from community supervision.
- 3. The defendant has not been gainfully employed.

10/25/09

- 4. The defendant is a habitual drug and/or alcohol user with daily crack cocaine use since she was 27 years old.
- 5. The defendant has a criminal history of: fraud with intent to obtain aid, possession of narcotic/controlled substance, receive known stolen property, sell/etc. in lieu of controlled substance, petty theft, and escape jail while charged with misdemeanor.
- 6. The defendant's criminal history as provided by Pretrial Services is incorporated in this Order by reference.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
